SAN FRANCISCO AGAIN AFTER EAST BAY CITIES

'Chronicle' Demands Bill Permitting Raids to Be Made on Alameda County Communities

(Editorial San Francisco Chronicle, June 5, 1914.)

The hearing on the proposed constitutional amendment permitting the consolidation of adjacent municipalities resulted in the unanimous recommendation of the supervisors' committee to disapprove the form which permitted San Francisco to extend only toward the south and approve the amendment drawn on broad lines, which would permit any adjacent municipalities to consolidate at any time when they may so wish.

There is no doubt that this recommendation will be adopted by the supervisors, and no one who was present at the hearing and heard the emphatic declarations of representatives of our various civic bodies will doubt that in so doing the supervisors represent public opinion in this city.

Not only will any amendment which prohibits or fails to permit any action of this kind which the people of any adjacent cities may wish to take will receive a solid negative vote from this city, but there will be inaugurated a statewide campaign against it.

Los Angeles desires to expand as a city and county, and unquestionably should be allowed to do so, if the adjacent communities also desire. There is every disposition in this city to help in that matter.

The people of this city would also be glad to take in any adjacent community or territory which may so desire. There are unquestionably advantages in such consolidations.

We do not know whether at the present time the people of any territory adjacent to this city desire to unite with us. There would presumably develop differences of opinion and no one can foretell which side would prevail in any case.

The representatives of Los Angeles say that they have discovered that some of the people of Oakland are opposed to consolidation with San Francisco and that the amendment was drawn in a form to make such a union impossible in order to avoid the opposition of such people.

But there are also Oaklanders who favor consolidation with this city and no one can tell without a vote which side is in the majority even in Oakland.

If there is a majority in Oakland opposed to consolidation there can be no consolidation. If those opposed feel that they have a majority they have no apparent reason so far as Oakland is concerned to fear an amendment permitting it.

If their opposition is in order to prevent any other transbay municipality from joining us if its people so wish, that is not a valid ground for objection.

But whatever may be present opinion in this or any other city no one can foresee what opinion may be in the future and the amendment should be so drawn as to permit any municipalities anywhere in the state to expand when all concerned desire it at any time.

And no amendment which does not permit this has the least chance of adoption by the people. There would be a majority against it in Alameda county.

TO RENEW ANNEXATION FIGHT.

Here is the milk in the coconut. San Francisco is preparing to renew its fight for the annexation of Oakland and other east bay cities, to wipe out their identities by merging them with its own. The proposed amendment to the state constitution, tentatively drafted at a conference of city attorneys of leading municipalities in Los Angeles for submission to the voters of the state—which would have prevented the expansion of San Francisco, except by the acquisition of territory on the peninsula south—is not acceptable to the officials over there and an effort will be made to alter its provisions to the end that it may seek new areas by attaching to itself the municipalities on this side of the bay.

That Oakland and the other cities and towns affected by this movement should take action to thwart the designs of San Francisco is imperative and there should be no delay in taking action. Los Angeles we are sure will not be eager to join with San Francisco in putting through the project.

The municipal officers, the commercial organizations, the improvement societies, the civic bodies of all classes in the cities of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Richmond and all the other towns affected should at once take action looking to the thwarting of the plan to obliterate them as distinct subdivisions and prepare to make a strong and winning fight against this proposed course of conduct.

WOULD GRAB WHAT OTHERS BUILT.

The future of the east bay cities, located as they are on the continental shore of the bay, with all their commercial possibilities, with all their opportunities for future greatness, cannot afford to be swallowed up simply for the purpose of gratifying a desire on the part of San Francisco to increase its population and its business by the process of grabbing or buying up that which others have built up by a labor of years, by self-sacrifice, thrift, industry and perseverance. It would be criminal to allow such action to be consummated. Oakland and the other cities affected can defeat this plan by united action and right now is the time to start the work.

The editorial in the Chronicle is the call to arms for loyal Oaklanders. The San Francisco delegation apparently does not want a fair bill; it wants the east bay cities annexed. The Chronicle wants a bill so framed that San Francisco can menace and harass the east bay cities for years to come in an effort to annex them.

U. C. Cashier Gets Another Stay

WITNESSES IN CASE ARE ABSENT

Comptroller Merritt and Auditor Goode Out of Reach

Woman Employee of the University Said to Be in Canada

The hearing of Harry L. Wright, deposed cashier of the University of California, on a charge of embezzlement, was for the third time postponed when the case came up before Judge Edgar in Berkeley this afternoon. Wright appeared in court for examination a little after 1 o'clock, but only as a formality. Previous arrangements had been made between the district attorney's office and Wright's counsel for another delay. Judge Edgar fixed the hearing for next Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Although the reason given for the postponement was that Deputy District Attorney A. R. Rogers, who is conducting the case against Wright for the state, could not be present, the absence from the jurisdiction of the court of Ralph Palmer Merritt, comptroller of the University, and head of the department in which Wright worked, and of Percy Goode, University auditor, is believed to be largely responsible for the continual delay.

MERRITT IN EAST.

Upon a number of other witnesses subpoena has been served, but these two men are away from Berkeley. Merritt has been sent East by the University regents, according to the statements of a University official to investigate the conduct of a business way of Eastern universities, the regents making no public announcement of his departure because they did not want it to appear that they had criticism to make of the conduct of his office.

Another employee of the University comptroller's office has also departed. Mrs. Norma Mills left several days before Wright's arrest and is said now to be in Toronto, Canada.

When Merritt will return is not apparently known at the University, but he left, according to information obtainable here, on May 20, the day of Wright's arrest.

SUBPOENA FOR GOODE.

Following the return to him of subpoenas issued for Merritt and Goode, with the report that they were not servable,

In Brotherly Spirit Officials Make Peace

Whatever intemperate thought waves may have flashed between Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen and District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes during the recent imbroglio over the extradition of "Sir" Harry Westwood Cooper from South Africa, they were forgotten last evening when "Billy" extended his right hand to "Pete" and welcomed him as a new member of the antiered herd of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. Hynes, who is past exalted ruler of Oakland Lodge, No. 171, was the first to greet the chief after he had passed through the initiation ceremonies.

"Now is the time for you to take your first lesson in the principles of brotherly love of the order," said Hynes, as he advanced with a smile.

"Well, I hope I shall be an apt pupil," replied Chief Petersen, giving a cordial clasp to Hynes, extended hand.

A class of seven were initiated at the meeting and took the vows of the fraternal organization. Those who accompanied Chief Petersen through the ritual were E. G. Hunt, lieutenant-colonel of the Fifth Regiment of the National Guard of California; G. W. Nickerson, city clerk of Albany; William Nat Friend, Claude L. Snow and David Guild Jr.

Train Drags Horse; Boy Rider Is Hurt

BERKELEY, June 5.—Joseph Roberts, living at 1935 Cedar street, was painfully injured this morning while riding a horse, he was struck by a Southern Pacific train on University avenue. Roberts was thrown from the horse and the animal was dragged by the train for some distance. Roberts sustained serious injuries to the head, face and back.

NOBLEWOMAN DISTURBS KING MAKES PLEA IN THRONE ROOM

"WILD WOMEN" THEY MAY BE, BUT THE SMILE ON THE FACE OF THE SUFFRAGETTE ABOVE BELLIES THE TITLE. THE SCENE IS ONE AT A RECENT HYDE PARK RIOT WHEN MRS. DRUMMOND WAS TAKEN INTO CUSTODY.

AT ROYALTY'S FEET

Widow of Sir Arthur Blomfield Found to Be Disturber.

LONDON, June 5.—Mrs. Mary Blomfield, daughter of Lady Sarah Louisa Blomfield, widow of Sir Arthur Blomfield, was the woman who created the sensational scene at Buckingham Palace last night, when she threw herself on her knees before King George and Queen Mary.

Mrs. Blomfield alone was concerned in the incident, although her sister, who also attended the court, was requested to leave the palace after the occasion, despite the fact that she took no part in the demonstration.

Officials of the palace today were on the verge of nervous prostration as the result of last night's sensation, and the lord chamberlain's department has taken every precaution to circumvent any attempt to repeat the performance tonight, when another function takes place at Buckingham Palace.

Persons in the immediate vicinity at the time declare the whole scene lasted less than ten seconds and the woman had only time to ejaculate audibly: "Your majesties, for God's sake—" when she was seized and hustled out of the throne room, finishing the sentence as she went.

BARRED FROM COURT.

King George was the coolest man in the company and the presentations proceeded after the incident with clockwork regularity. It is understood no further action will be taken against Mrs. Blomfield except to bar her from future court functions.

The sisters obtained admission to court in the ordinary way, through application to the lord chamberlain's department. Recent discourtesies shown by militants to the king and the burning down of many churches have inflamed public opinion to a remarkable degree. People have been still further increased by what is regarded as the well-grounded belief that much of the work of destruction is done by hired hands well paid out of the building coffers of the Women's Social and Political Union and the reports of women leaving other employment to join the militants, not from love of the cause.

Hundreds Die as Storm Sweeps Japan

TOKIO, June 5.—A disastrous storm has swept over western and southern Japan. Several hundred people are believed to have been drowned. The steamer Mongolia rescued many seamen. A hundred houses in Nagasaki have been blown down.

MILES ON T. R.

'RIDE TO FALL'

General Says the Colonel Wasn't at San Juan Hill

MINNEAPOLIS, June 5.—Colonel Roosevelt did not discover a new river, nor did Colonel Roosevelt lead his famous rough riders up San Juan Hill, according to General Nelson A. Miles, U. S. A., retired.

"In my judgment nothing can prevent the Republican party from rallying around Roosevelt the next time," said General Miles.

"He will get the nomination and be a magnetic personality in the period preceding the convention. Then he will go into the campaign and he will ride to a fall."

"The River of Doubt is the last straw. That river was known and on the maps of Brazil a century ago or longer. It bears the same relation to geographic discovery that Roosevelt's historic and heroic charge up San Juan Hill bears to the Spanish-American war."

"Roosevelt was not at San Juan Hill, yet millions of persons to this day believe he was. Millions of persons have been deceived."

"When the next election comes the people will want to be shown the man who was not at San Juan Hill; he did; all about him will come out. This will be the case with regard to his alleged military career and all his trust-busting and other activities."

"When the people know the facts, just the plain facts, they will know him under."

CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR

DES MOINES, Iowa, June 5.—Theodore Roosevelt is seriously considering the nomination of becoming the Democratic candidate for governor in New York, according to a letter received today by David Hinchshaw, national Progressive organizer here, from George W. Perkins.

WOMEN MUST PAY

But Men May Attend Ball Free; So Native Daughters Pout.

Wanted—Men. There will be 300 delegates from all parts of the state as visitors to Oakland during the Native Daughters' annual convention. They will be entertained at an elaborate dance at the Hotel Oakland on the evening of June 4 and that's just where the Native Daughters' committee got "in wrong" with the fair native daughters of Oakland. This is why, Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda Native Daughters must pay $1 to go to the dance. Men may come in free with them. The old custom of "Men 11 ladies free" has been reversed. The girls are "angry."

"We'll go to the dance anyhow," they declare, "and after all, the old man pays for it anyhow. But it's the principle of it that we object to. A man, by himself, can get into the dance free, if he has an invitation. It's not fair."

COMMITTEE OBDURATE.

Mrs. Tillie Frick, head of the committee in charge of the dance, has been besieged, threatened, importuned, but her rule still remains, and she says, like the law of the Medes and Persians, cannot be commuted, altered or extended. The committee backs her up. They say that men are needed—and therefore men must be given inducements. Even if dancing with the visiting Native Daughters is not enough, therefore, they have decreed that in charge of seating poisoned candy through the mails at Los Angeles.

The committee, which arranged for the big dance, consists of Miss Winnie Buckingham, Miss Anna Lunde, Miss Mamie Jackson, Miss Cora L. Clough, Miss Myra Sackett, Miss Ann. Corners and Miss Stella Elakley. The dance will be one of the big features of the grand parlor session.

Woman Arrested in Poisoned-Candy Case

RICHMOND, June 5.—Twelve hours after she had arrived in Richmond, Mrs. Georgia Johnson was arrested this afternoon at the public telephone office here on a charge of sending poisoned candy through the mails at Los Angeles.

A fugitive from the southern city, Mrs. Johnson was trailed through the state to this place. Last night Chief of Police Arnold received a message from Los Angeles, stating that she was under arrest and today he made the arrest.

Mrs. Johnson is said also to be known as Mrs. Georgia Burt Simons. The Richmond police know nothing of her, except the information over the wire last night.

OFFICIAL OF COUNTY IS ACCUSED

Expert on the Books of Recorder Corcoran of Solano

Severs the Jugular Veins While Ill in Oakland Hospital

FAIRFIELD, Cal., June 5.—A shortage which he estimates at $1200 was announced by District Attorney J. M. Raines today in the accounts of T. V. Corcoran, who attempted to kill himself in an Oakland hospital last night.

The District Attorney said the Recorder had not made any settlement with the Auditor for three months.

An expert will be put on the books, although no grand jury action is contemplated unless Corcoran's improvement appears certain. The District Attorney said that apparently recording fees had been diverted.

"Let me die! Don't interfere!" was the plea of T. V. Corcoran, recorder of Solano county, following an attempt at suicide by cutting his throat, at a local hospital last night. Miss Helen Smith, a nurse, detailed on the case, happened into his room just after he cut his throat from ear to ear. With presence of mind she stopped the flow of blood, despite the exhortations of the half-conscious man. He may live.

Corcoran came to the hospital two days ago suffering from pleurisy. Last night he seemed in good spirits. He was not, however, as he was not feared. Miss Smith, coming to his room and finding the light out, was told by Corcoran to "Go away and let me sleep. I feel bully."

She did so, but the time for his medicine coming a few moments later, she again entered the room. The man lay in bed gasping, with a rent cut across his throat. The gash had severed both external jugular veins. Miss Smith, applying emergency remedies, at once called for the house physician. The man regained consciousness this morning, but was very weak.

"Let me die. I don't want to live," pleaded the patient as the nurse worked over him, after taking the razor with which he attempted to make a second gash in his throat. "I am tired of life," declared the patient.

Corcoran is well known in Solano county. His home is in Fairfield. For some time he has been recorder of the county and was a leader in politics. He came to the hospital following two weeks' illness at his home from pleurisy. He is 31 years of age.

RESCUED IN BLAZE

Heroic Policeman Risks Own Life to Save Rooming-House Inmates.

Nearly suffocated by the thick clouds of smoke, which, issuing from a blazing linen closet, filled the apartment house, Policeman Charles Nichtenkale of the Central Station, at the risk of his own life, rescued A. B. Mills, an occupant of the Crown Apartment House, 3544 Eleventh street, this morning.

A fire in a linen closet caused a panic when it filled the corridors with smoke. Before the arrival of the fire department all the guests with the exception of Mills had escaped. Nichtenkale, to rescue the man, was forced to attack the fire.

breaking a window to reach the man. The fire itself was small, and soon gotten under control by the department. It started in the closet and spread to another room. The cause was not ascertained by the firemen.

Nichtenkale first rescued Mrs. James Rucker, the landlady, who was found near the linen closet in a hysterical condition. From her he learned of Mills, asleep on the top floor. The man had been up late last night, and was sleeping heavily.

A mission house which sustained considerable damage from water. The damage to the rooming house will total several hundred dollars. The place is operated by James Rucker and his wife. About 20 inmates reside in the house.

Intense Heat, Wind and Snow Add Variety to Nation's Weather

GREENWOOD, Wis., June 5.—This town and others along the Black River were in danger today of being swollen by the heavy rains of last night and Wednesday, have torn the municipal light and power company's dam from its anchorage and swept away 250 feet of concrete levee. Many families have been driven from their homes. At Hemlock, four miles from here, the roller mills of the Withee Lumber Company have been torn down by a bursting dam. At Owen, fifteen miles north, four feet of water is swirling through the streets.

Helena has a population of about 400.

SIX INJURED.
SOMERSET, Pa., June 5.—Six persons were injured, one probably fatally, when a tornado-like rain and windstorm swept up the valley of the Casselman river in this county. Many buildings were damaged and several destroyed. Reports say that not a building in the towns of Ursina and Confluence escaped damage. Telephone and telegraph lines are down. Four physicians with medical supplies were sent from Greenwood to Ursina on a special train.

Ulster Volunteer Army Gets 3000 Mausers

BELFAST, June 5.—The army of the Ulster Volunteers was strengthened today by the addition of 3000 Mauser rifles as the result of a daring gun-running feat of an Irish yachtsman. A portion of the consignment was landed to the south of Donaghadee, sixteen miles from Belfast, but most of them were delivered straight on the quay at Belfast. In Portland and at some points throughout the Wiltshire valley there was hail and rain with moderate temperatures. No serious damage to crops is reported.

Medford, in southern Oregon, reported snow flurries, heavy hail and strong winds. Umatilla and Union counties, in eastern Oregon, and Crook, in central Oregon, had snow. In Portland and at some points throughout the Wiltshire valley there was hail and rain with moderate temperatures. No serious damage to crops is reported.

10,000 WORKERS MAY BE IDLE BY NIGHTFALL

PITTSBURGH, June 5.—Declaring they would not return to their places in the factories of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company and the Westinghouse Machine Company until working conditions were improved, approximately 8000 men and women, members of the Allegheny Congregational Industrial Union, struck here today.

Three thousand electrical workers refused to enter the shops this morning, and after a mass meeting at the Turtle Creek playground, their number was increased by men who left the plant later. Pickets sent to the machine works brought out almost 1000 workers, and the directors of the strike claimed there would be 10,000 factory hands idle in the Turtle Creek valley by nightfall.

CONFERENCE AIDS BONDS Final Assurance Is Had as to Auditorium Cost

Positive assurance that the municipal auditorium can be fully completed for the $200,000 sought through the authorization of a bond issue by the citizens at the second election to be held on June 12, was given last evening by Mark Rega, president of the Alameda County Tax Association, at the conference between the Progress and Prosperity Committee of the chamber of commerce and the representatives of the various civic and commercial organizations, the labor council and the improvement clubs of the various sections of the city.

In the course of the meeting, the question was raised as to what guarantee existed that the auditorium could be finished for the amount stipulated, inasmuch as the first estimates for the work had fallen so far short of the actual cost as to require additional money. Chairman F. A. Briggs stated that there is no doubt that the amount asked for in the second bond issue will fully cover the exigencies of the situation, and called upon Mark Rega for confirmation of the statement.

ALL DOUBTS LAID.
"That important phase has been especially investigated by the Tax Association," said Rega, "and we have reported that there is no doubt whatever that the $200,000 will suffice amply for the work. We instructed our experts to check every figure in the estimates and the results of their investigations have been gone over carefully and published with our approval. But we did more than that; we took the matter up with the contractors who are in charge of the work and received their assurance that they will complete the building for the amount specified in our report. We have letters from them on file in which this promise is definitely given."

J. P. Montgomery, representing the West Oakland Improvement Clubs, questioned the stability of the foundation of the auditorium and the validity of the city's title to the land upon which it stands. "We know that the building stands on filled land and that such ground is unstable unless the foundations are sunk to the underlying rock," he said. "What assurance have we that the money which we are asked to vote will be put into a building that will stand for all time? Furthermore, there are rumors that the city's title to the land without flaw and that there may some day a suit arise against the city on the part of the original owner."

TITLE IS FLAWLESS.
Attorney Charles E. Snook, who represents the city's interests in the adjustment of that particular transaction, was present and answered the objection.

"There is absolutely no question as to the validity of the title," he said. "The city's right to the land is unassailable from a legal standpoint and the title is without flaw. The fact that there are still some adjustments to be made as to the cash payments has doubtless given rise to the rumors that the title is insecure."

Assurance was also given that the foundations of the auditorium are adequate for the superimposed weight of steel and stone. Piers were sunk through the softer alluvial strata to a firm basis, and to reach this it was necessary to go down ninety feet. No spliced or double piles were used, but each timber was a solid, unbroken log. The very care spent upon the foundation has been one of the causes why the original estimates did not cover the work; its cost exceeded by several thousand dollars the amount that the contractors had expected to expend.

The necessity of the auditorium was an asset for the city from an educational and moral standpoint was discussed by Rev. William Keeney Towner. He pointed out the value of a civic center of this character as a rallying point for all activities of the citizens, and emphasized the point that the city can supervise the kind of entertainment offered to its younger citizens and maintain a higher moral standard.

CASHIER'S CASE IS AGAIN POSTPONED

Judge Edgar issued a foreign subpoena for Goode, which may be served anywhere in the State.

Following the discovery of Wright's shortages, amounting in all to $14,000, the district attorney's office caused his arrest on May 20. His arraignment was held on May 21 and the preliminary examination was then set for May 29. By agreement of Wright's attorney, Lin S. Church and District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes, the case was delayed until today, and this afternoon came the third postponement.

While this action was by stipulation of attorneys on both sides and owing to other pressing matters under their attention, the matter of subpoenaing witnesses has been passed up to the District Attorney's office by the Berkeley police and Assistant District Attorney James M. Koford is endeavoring to find out just how many witnesses will be needed and their identity.

When the University authorities failed to prosecute and the matter passed into the hands of District Attorney Hynes, the entire problem of unearthing evidence in the case devolved upon him with the exception of such figures and reports as the Regents' office turned over to him.

FEAR OVER THREAT FEAR OVER INHERITANCE COSTS WOMAN $450

She Describes Alleged Extortion in Blackmail Trial; Mrs. Everts Testifies.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—The prosecution in the case of Lillian May Everts, charged with attempted blackmail, concluded its testimony in Superior Judge Cabanilla's court this morning.

Mrs. Virginia Holland, a stenographer, whom Mrs. Everts is said to have threatened, was the chief witness. She described the scene at a downtown department store, when, she alleges, she paid the defendant $450 because of her threats of exposure.

This afternoon Mrs. Everts herself took the witness stand and in response to questions by Attorney Sims, denied that she had threatened Mrs. Holland or that she had attempted to get money from her. It is expected that the case will be concluded tonight.

iricolor Will lead Panama Canal Parade

WASHINGTON, June 5.—In recognition of the French people in the construction of the Panama canal, first steps were taken today to present to France the steam launch, Louise, used in constructing the canal, and to give to the place of honor at the formal opening.

Senator Root today introduced a resolution authorizing the presentation. The Louise was built in France in 1888 and used first by the French Panama Canal Company and later by the United States.

Good News for Sufferers From Kidney Diseases

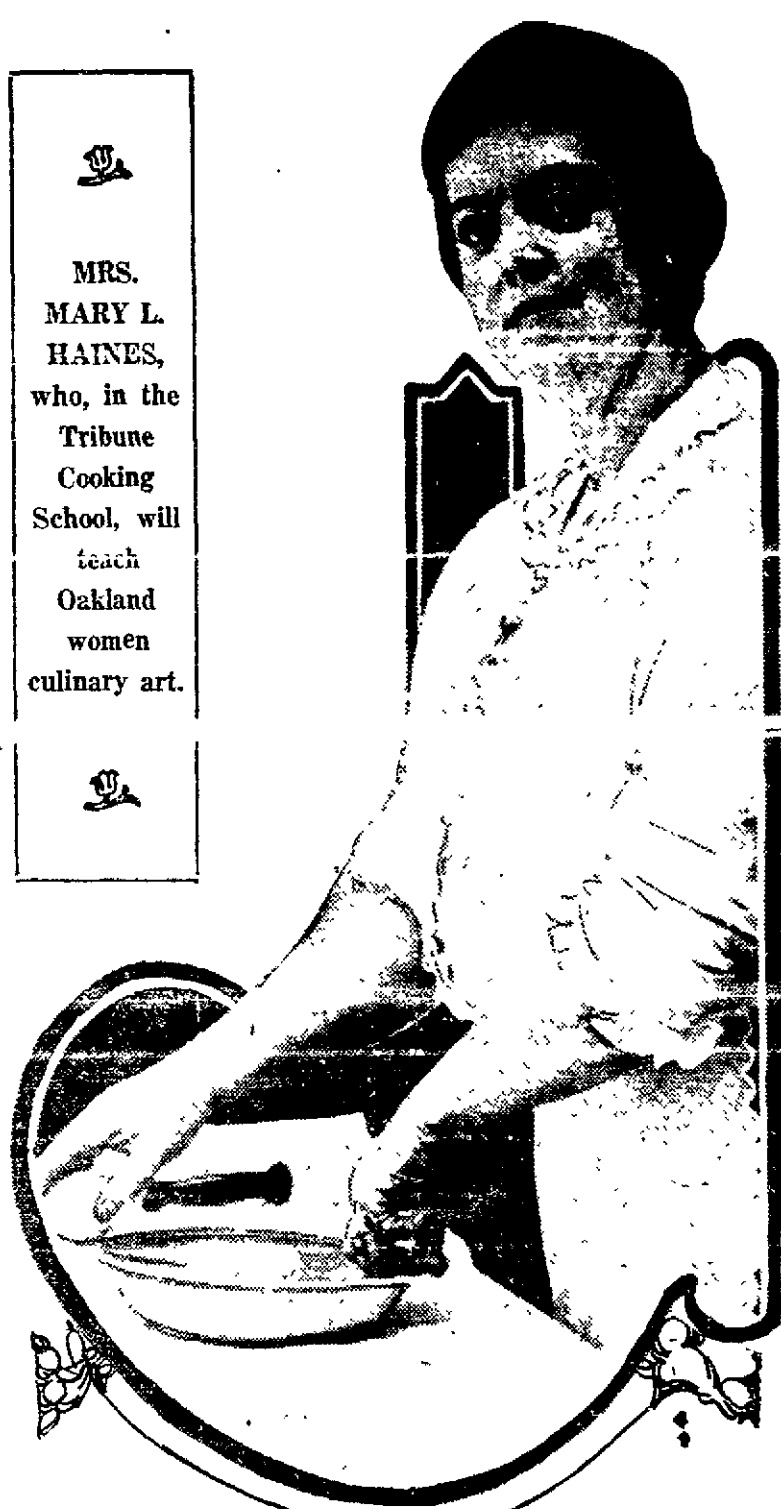

The kidneys, from their delicate construction and the filtering work required of them, are more susceptible to disease than any other organ in the wonderful machinery of the human body. The most deplorable feature of kidney disease consists in its subtle and elusive character, and so insidious are its ravages that many victims do not even suspect its existence until the advanced stages have been reached. Few people, after reaching the period of maturity, are in possession of absolutely healthy kidneys. It follows that the greatest care and vigilance must be exercised to keep these organs free from the dangers that constantly beset them.

Since the discovery of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy about 27 years ago, many sufferers from kidney diseases have been benefited by its healing properties. Many physicians consider it an excellent remedy in the treatment of the diseases of the kidneys, liver and blood. Get it today. It is sold by all druggists in 50c and $1.00 sizes.

Other Warner's Safe Remedies are: Safe Rheumatic Remedy, Safe Diabetic Remedy, Safe Nervine, Safe Asthma Remedy, Safe Pills. No one Warner's preparation is recommended as a "cure-all," but each is for a purpose. Send for sample and booklet to Warner's Safe Remedies Co., Dept. 363, Rochester, N. Y.

DURE FOOD FOR FATHER COOKERY FOR HIS WIFE

MRS. MARY L. HAINES, who, in the Tribune Cooking School, will teach Oakland women culinary art.

Mr. Oakland is going to eat, and eat well, pretty soon. No more will he excrete wife's biscuits or long for the pie mother used to make. Wife's going to learn how to make good biscuits—and Mrs. Oakland's pies will soon beat any her mother-in-law, even in house's mightiest days, as turned out. It's going to be this because she's going to see the very latest in scientific cookery. She will, better than that, learn economy. She will learn how to make a 6-cent pie for 6 cents—no more—and how to get food value for every dollar invested.

It's all due to the big TRIBUNE cooking school, to be one of the features of the big Pure Food and Household Economy Show, to be held in Oakland under the auspices of the Alameda County Retail Grocers and Merchants' Association, June 8 to 20. In a great tent the people of Oakland will be shown the latest in foodstuffs, products of local and Eastern manufacturers. Dishes that would delight an epicure, and their component parts, will be on display. In the center of the big tent, on a special stage, will be held the big school. Mrs. Mary L. Haines, noted expert on scientific cookery, will be in charge, and Miss Marjorie Brehner, her assistant, will also aid in teaching Oakland housewives economy. They will teach all young and old. Daily, with the products on exhibit, they will concoct dainty dishes before their audiences, explaining every step and process, every operation and showing in detail every move, just as it would be made by a noted chef.

HUSBY SHOULD SMILE. Mrs. Haines will produce new recipes, cook them before her classes and will make epicures of Oakland men. They will make Oakland women competent to feed such epicures. Could anything be more appropriate?

For instance, who's eaten tapioca cream? No one in Oakland? Well, it's about time. They will. Here's the plans and specifications, according to Mrs. Haines: Put into a double boiler one pint sweet milk, one-fourth to teaspoonful salt, two eggs, one-fourth cupful of sugar, and a heaping tablespoonful of "minute tapioca." Add a spoon of vanilla.

Boil the milk, add yolks of the eggs, which have been beaten creamy with the sugar. Stir for a minute or two and beat the whites of the eggs until stiff, add sugar to make meringue and spread on top of the custard. Serve cold. Isn't it easy if you know how?

Economy is the watchword of THE TRIBUNE cooking school—but the dishes will be more tasty than economical, at that.

cause, but "because the pay is better." Police magistrates have warned suffragette prisoners that if they had not been protected by the police they would almost certainly have suffered at the hands of the irate public. Greater activity on the part of the government is expected.

DERBY, England, June 5.—The historic church at Breadsall, dating back to Norman times and containing many priceless relics, was destroyed by fire during the night. Suffragettes are suspected by the authorities, as explosions similar to those caused by the bombs usually employed by the arson squad were heard before the fire.

A short time ago a suffragette meeting in the village of Beardsall was broken up by boys and it is generally supposed that the women burned the church in revenge.

Among the things consumed by the flames was an ancient chained Bible. The church register, dating back to 1673, was saved.

REDMOND SIDE-STEPS. LONDON, June 5.—John Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists, declined today a request by Irish suffragists that he receive a deputation to discuss the inclusion of women as electors in the Irish parliament. Redmond pointed out that previous deputations of this nature had caused only unpleasantness and reiterated the view that Ireland, under home rule, must decide whether she wants women voters.

As she was passing the King the suffragette dropped on her knees and shouted "Your majesty! for God's sake do not use force!" The woman was attired in court and Political Union, the militant organization, deny responsibility for the incident at Buckingham Palace last night when a woman interrupted the presentations by throwing herself at the King's feet.

Striking scenes were witnessed at a meeting of the Women's Social and Political Union last night. Mrs. Mansell presided and threatened the London editors with the fate of the two Belfast editors who on Wednesday were assaulted by militant suffragettes who visited them at their offices. Mrs. Mansell referred to the report that subscribers to the fund would be prosecuted and said she wondered whether the government would dare to prosecute the Liberal ladies who had subscribed.

AUDIENCE CHEERS. The audience became hysterically excited, cheering all references to violence and greeting the mention of the government and police with cries of "Animals!" "Serves the brutes right!" "Let the editors beware!"

Next week the Women's Social and Political Union will observe as self-denial week. The names of donors of money and jewelry will not be disclosed as a precaution against any attempt on the part of the government to seize the offerings or prosecute the donors.

MAY TAKE PROPERTY. The Times understands that the crown lawyers are of the opinion that subscribers to the suffragist funds come within reach of the law and that their property can be attached for damage done.

"General" Mrs. Flora Drummond was seen last night at the Buckingham Palace under the "cat and mouse act."

The vicar of the Wargrave church, recently burned, today received an anonymous suffragette threat that St. Mary's church at Reading would be the next building dealt with.

DISTURBS ROYAL COURT. The King and Queen held court at Buckingham Palace last night and in spite of all precautions a militant suffragette gained access to their presence and caused an interruption to the predress and her action caused profound astonishment. She continued to admonish the King, but her words were inaudible, as the conductor of the band in the gallery, quick to observe the incident, signaled to the band to play louder, and the woman's voice was drowned.

HANDLED OVER TO POLICE.

She was removed from the room and handed over to the police. The name of the woman is not known and close inquiries are being made as to how she obtained a card of admission.

Among those presented to the King and Queen were Miss Esther Cleveland of Princeton, daughter of the late Grover Cleveland, Ralph Page, son of the American ambassador, and Mrs. Ralph Page, Mrs. Edward Bell, wife of the second secretary of the American embassy; Mrs. Randolph Mordecai and Miss Margarita Pennington, both of Baltimore; Miss Dorothy Doubleday of New York and Miss Mary Sanger of Sangerfield, N. ## GEN. MILES ON COL. ROOSEVELT

"New River Century Old; T. R. Wasn't at San Juan Hill."

Some of Colonel Roosevelt's plans for the campaign are told by Mr. Perkins. "When he first came home he said that he did not see how he could possibly do this, but when he left here I think he was weighing the matter with great care and that if he makes up his mind that duty calls him to make the race here for the sake of conditions existing in this state and because of the Progressive demand for him he will get into the race and accept the nomination," the letter reads.

TO VISIT LONDON

LONDON, June 5.—Colonel Roosevelt will visit London on his return from Madrid. Probably he will be here June 12 to 18. He has accepted the invitation of the Royal Geographical Society to speak on his discoveries in Brazil. The lecture will be given in the theater of Burlington House on June 18 before the Fellows of the Royal Geographical Society only.

'THE MIKADO' TO BE SUNG TONIGHT

High School Students to Appear in Famed Comic Opera.

The performance of "The Mikado" will take place tonight at the Masonic Theatre under the auspices of the high school of the Oakland High School. The finishing touches have been made and every member of the cast is in readiness to go upon the stage. Fred Carby, the coach, said "The members of this cast are the best lot of young folks that I have worked with. They are apt and learned the opera easily. I predict a great success tonight and a performance that professionals would be proud of."

The music for the opera will be played by August Horrichs and will again have the opportunity of hearing his excellent orchestra at the Y. I. theatre.

Carl Mau and his stage manager, George Patterson, have succeeded in procuring one of the most exquisite settings procurable for the opera. The first scene will be set in a Japanese garden, intermingled with many colored lanterns and in the distance through this mass of finery Pajama will be visible. The second scene will be a typical Japanese courtyard.

During the intermission the girls of the chorus will be in their dainty costumes will go among the audience singing their songs and selling candy.

RUSSIA ARMS IN BLACK SEA WATERS

Dreadnaughts of Czar's Navy Indicate Advance of His Program.

ODESSA, June 5.---The third stage in Russia's ambitious naval program for the Black Sea was concluded today with the successful launching of the Dreadnaught Ekaterina II at the Nikolaev navy yard.

The two dreadnaughts already launched, and soon to go into commission, are the Empress Maria and the Alexander III. The fourth, the Pagan the Terrible, is to be laid down on the Black Sea and be the Ekaterina II. The six destroyers and the six submarines, included in the new program, have already been completed, and two armored cruisers are building. There is also being constructed one of the largest floating docks in the world, capable of carrying a vessel of 40,000 tons. It will cost $2,000,000.

Notwithstanding this formidable force, naval experts say that Turkey would have a decided advantage on the Black Sea in the event of a war between the two countries, as the Russian Dreadnaughts are inferior to the Turkish Dreadnaughts in the use of torpedoes and the other now completing in England. The longer range of the Turkish guns would, it is believed, more than counterbalance the greater aggregate tonnage and armament of the new Russian craft.

ANTI-KAMNIA TABLETS FOR Locomotor Ataxia

In a very interesting article on Locomotor Ataxia, Dr. Henry C. Story says that drugs have practically no beneficial effect in these cases and there should be no worries or troubles. Plenty of fresh air and moderate exercise must be insisted upon, but over-exercising is injurious. The use of tobacco and alcohol should be strictly forbidden, and over-eating is dangerous, especially when the food is poor. The most nourishing food must be of the most nourishing kind, and the quantity and variety must be changed so that the patient will not lose his appetite. The most common mistake in these cases is the pain which at times is almost unbearable. Dr. Story says that he has had two anti-kamnia Tablets repeated last hour if necessary, gives prompt relief and rest to the patient. These Tablets can be obtained at all drug stores in any quantity.

Also unexcelled for hemorrhoids, hemorrhoids, P. A. M. Tablets succumb to A-K Tablets.

YOUNG INVENTOR'S DREAM REALIZED

Boy Dies, But Mayors Are to Talk Over His Wireless Telephone.

The ambition of a boy who, although he revolutionized wireless operations, died penniless on an operating table at the Oakland Medical Hospital, will be realized when, from the top of Oakland's city hall and the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco next Monday Mayor Mott and Mayor Rolph will talk to each other over his wireless telephone. "The experiments of the boy, who, after his invention was killed in a runaway, have been carried on by his brother and others, and Monday's demonstration will mark its first public use as an established success."

It was in 1902 that Francis Joseph McCarthy, then 13 years old, began to experiment. At the age of 17 he had talked through the air by wire waves in his home. He had obtained patents. The same year he was killed in a runaway.

Since then his brother, J. H. McCarthy, has been experimenting. His station on the St. Mark Hotel will be remembered by Oaklanders. He also had a station in San Francisco.

He and his father sold stock, and patented the device all over the world.

The invention is now owned by a company headed by J. B. Ruegg, W. V. Hanson, chief engineer, and the directors are Ruegg, Tyler Henshaw, John McNear, Harry Knowles and David Yarnell. Attorney George M. Davis is secretary of the new corporation.

The demonstration between the two mayors Monday will be the first public work of the invention since McCarthy's death at the Hotel St. Mark.

Carby, when his station was going, used to break into government wireless messages by placing a phonograph in his line. Complaints finally led to a dispute between McCarthy and Uncle Sam and later he agreed to leave certain hours of the day free for the government wireless men.

FRENCH EXPERIMENTS.

PARIS, June 5.---The inventors of the wireless telegraph apparatus succeeded in transmitting speech by wireless five years ago. Their instruments were installed on the French battleships Verite and Justice, but they could not be depended upon, chiefly owing to the variable quality of the oscillations of the Hertzian waves. The inventors succeeded in overcoming the difficulties by the use of an attachment which filters the waves. They declare that any number of posts can exchange conversations at the same time without interfering with each other by slightly varying the respective wave lengths.

While intense measuring 150 feet are necessary for long distance transmission, conversations can be received on the small apparatus which is used by many persons to catch the Eiffel Tower time signals.

Successful tests of an extensive character were carried out today between Paris and a receiving station installed in a country house at Mettray, near Tours.

TALK OVER 150 MILES.

PARIS, June 6.---By means of a wireless telegraph apparatus invented by two naval officers, Commander Victor Collin and Lieutenant Maurice Jeance, conversations were carried on today over a distance of 150 miles. The words came with greater distinctness, it is said, than is customary even over a telephone connected by wire.

MAGEE LEAVES ESTATE TO WIDOW; WILL FILED

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.---The will of the late real estate dealer, Thomas Magee, who was killed in an automobile accident on Memorial day, was filed yesterday for probate in the Superior Court. At the same time Mrs. Estelle Wood Hush Magee, widow of the deceased, and named as executrix in the will, filed her petition for appointment as administratrix over the estate.

The entire estate is valued at the widow and consists of real and personal property the value of which has not been determined. The estate has been estimated at worth between $300,000 and $500,000 by business associates of Magee. The will reads as follows:

"I, THOMAS MAGEE, 1853, herewith bequeath to my wife, Estelle Magee, all my property, personal and real, which I have now or may acquire. I request that no bond be required of her as executrix in the doing of any act or thing in the course of administration upon my estate. Written and signed (Signed) THOMAS MAGEE

Beside the widow, the deceased left a five-year-old son, Thomas M. Magee, Jr., who was not mentioned in the will.

Services at Plymouth Church for Sunday are being planned for Oakland's workers for social welfare. Invitations are being sent to members of the Welfare Workers Club and playground supervisors. The topics for the day will be as follows:

At 11 a. m., "Can you make a Sunday-school out of a Seaport Town?" This is in the nature of an answer to "The New Chief of Police" which Landers Stevens is now playing at Pantages, and which contains a strange and unfortunate mixture of true and false social philosophy.

At 7.45 p. m., "Play: Good Fun and How to Have It." Second in a series on "Work-Play-Love-Worship," based on Dr. Richard C. Cabot's new book, "What Men Live By."

INDIGESTION AND CONSTIPATION.

"About five years ago I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets after suffering from indigestion and constipation for years without finding anything to relieve me. Chamberlain's Tablets helped me at once and I have never since had any trouble."--Mrs. Mary E. McMullen, Phelps, N. Y. For sale by Osgood Bros. Drug Store.

MORGAN DID NOT WORRY

Not a Bit Troubled Over New Haven R. R. Affairs

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Lewis Case Ledyard, continuing his testimony on New Haven railroad financial affairs before the Interstate Commerce Commission, denied today that the New Haven directors were "dummies" or that the late J. P. Morgan or former President Mellen dominated the board. He said he had often opposed Mr. Morgan; that the board meetings were well attended, and that generally the directors took part in the proceedings. Ledyard's testimony was enlivened by a lively clash with Folk, in which the witness insisted on answering questions in his own way and appealed to Commissioner Daniels to sustain him.

J. W. H. Crim, attorney for former President Mellen, read into the record Mellen's much-discussed letter to former United States Attorney at New York, assuming responsibility for the Grand Trunk deal, under which Mellen was indicted. Mellen testified he took the responsibility to shield the late J. Pierpont Morgan.

Ledyard yesterday vigorously contradicted that contention.

Ledyard said it accorded with his recollection and Ledyard replied:

Ledyard told of Mellen telling him he had heard of some conferences Morgan had with officials of the Grand Trunk and asked him to inquire of Morgan if he was worried about Grand Trunk affairs.

"I CHASE BIBLE."

"I asked Mr. Morgan if he was worried about Grand Trunk affairs, and he said:

"Not a bit."

"Did Mellen send the letter the same day he wrote it?"

"My impression is he said he was sending it right along by messenger."

"Do you understand anything you say may be used against you?" asked Mr. Folk.

"Oh, yes."

"Your relations with Morgan were quite intimate? You made yachting trips with him and you drew his will and were made one of his executors?"

"That is correct."

OPPOSED MORGAN

Ledyard said he often opposed Morgan and had done so on the New Haven board.

"Did you oppose him enough to make him mad?"

"I never hesitated to tell him plainly what I thought."

Folk asked Ledyard about a small dividend in connection with an undivided income which Morgan had urged him to accept, although he had said he did not want to take it.

"Well, you finally took it?"

"Yes; as I have said before, I took it and gave it to a charity in which Mr. Morgan was interested."

"So he had his way, after all?"

"He had his way and I had mine," retorted Ledyard.

"You did not fuss with him very hard?"

"I refuse to answer that question."

"Were the Connecticut directors largely dummies?" Folk asked.

BRUSH "OBSTINATE OLD MAN."

"I should not say that," Ledyard not a dummy. Charles P. Brooker was not. Mr. Brush was a most aggressive and obstinate old man. Mr. Whittemore was an able man of large interests. Frank Brewster was a young, energetic man, who asked many questions. Henry K. McIlhenny was a man of large interests."

Folk asked about Lawrence Minor.

"He was a typical Boston trustee," Ledyard replied. "He was careful and conservative."

"How about Edward Milligan?"

"He was a worthy and respectable man who never impressed me as having a great knowledge of railroad affairs."

"How about Edward Milligan?"

"He made a good impression on me and when he first became a member of the board he showed a desire to know about things that were going on and never hesitated to speak out in meetings. This was rather unusual in a Connecticut director."

Auditorium Delusion Lands Him in Asylum

How to eliminate the municipal auditorium in one day was a dissertation made before Superior Judge Harris this morning by Robert Fulton, who declared that if given the opportunity by financiers he would carry on the construction and then turn the building over to the city for the sum of $100,000.

"I'll make it all marble with Doric columns and everything will be fitted out and ready for use," he declared.

At the end of the interview Judge Harris committed Fulton to Napa Asylum. Fulton was formerly in business in Oakland and has been in poor health for the last year.

TUG GOES TO RESCUE OF PETREL, ON ROCKS

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—The United States Customs cutter, the Golden Gate, was rushed out to Port Point this morning to rescue the Petrel, a yawl which was carried through the Golden Gate early this morning, after having been driven on the rocks by the heavy sea.

The cutter, buffeted by the heavy sea, was smashed against the rocks beyond the life saving station and it was feared would pound to pieces. The Golden Gate got a line around it and expected to be able to pull it off.

The Liver as Aid To Blood Purify

The Natural Stimulus Required is Not the Pur-gative Kind

Most Pills Are Better if Thrown Away.

Important as it is to keep the bowels open, it should be remembered that this action does not necessarily mean that the liver has been stimulated. The action of P. S. E. is a natural liver tonic and not a bowel mover. It works in the liver and assists in the natural and necessary function of converting from the blood certain elements into what are known as assimilable products. These are readily absorbed by the body tissues to constantly provide new and healthy material for that which is being discarded by the action of the bowels.

The presence of any blood trouble naturally suggests a sluggish liver, but there is no need to resort to purgatives which upon reaching the liver, still retain their cathartic energy to keep on through the blood circulation to do battle with impurities wherever they may have settled.

Rheumatism, catarrhs, anemia, most skin diseases and other results of impure blood while impeding the liver by their morbid influence, are quickly checked by P. S. E. Its action throughout the blood circulation results in the stimulation of the liver cells in the healthy and judicious selection of

Bankers in Cortège Of Dead Associate

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—Many bankers and a great number of family friends attended the funeral today of George Luchinsinger, president of the Humboldt Savings Bank, who committed suicide at his home on Washington street on Wednesday morning.

A very simple service was conducted by N. Gray & Company, as is the desire of the relatives that the interment be private. Only a few intimates followed the automobile hearse to Cypress Lawn cemetery.

The chief mourners were Mrs. G. Luchinsinger, the widow; a son, A. G. Luchinsinger, and sister of the banker, Mrs. A. E. Buckingham.

FOUNDERS GO; CLUB HAS DEFICIT

Petition in Bankruptcy Filed;
the Police Take Case in Hand.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—Charging that the Automobile Club of San Francisco is insolvent as the direct result of the manipulation of two of its incorporators, R. W. Blanchard and W. Goodman, a petition in bankruptcy was filed in the Federal court today.

According to the allegations contained in the complaint, Blanchard and Goodman are held to be directly responsible for the financial difficulties of the club, and it was asserted that warrants are in the hands of the police for their arrest.

WIVES REMAINED.
While here the two men lived at the Edystone apartments. Their wives were still to be found there after they had made their sudden exit from the city on May 20. Their schemes of getting rich quickly were augmented by an advertising campaign which they waged. It is alleged, for obtaining employees. They would force applicants to pay a registration fee, according to the charges, and then would not hire them.

Another angle of the scheme, it is declared, was worked on Benjamin Zornstein, who was persuaded to subscribe for $2000 worth of stock and was held on the payroll for a while at a salary of $25 a week. The men were the prime movers in the autoists' organization, Blanchard being vice-president and Goodman secretary and treasurer.

ORGANIZE CENTER OF FARM BUREAU

Oakland Joins Movement for Securing Government Advisor of District.

In pursuance of the movement for securing a government advisor for this district, an Oakland Center of the Alameda County Farm Bureau was organized yesterday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce by H. B. Robinson of Hayward, president of the Alameda county organization, Frank A. Leach Jr. was secretary, and D. H. Fiedler secretary.

The officials will decide upon dates of meeting and other details of the conduct of the Bureau. The Oakland Center is the sixth to be organized in the county and are at Livermore, Pleasanton, Hayward, Castro Valley and Alameda. It is planned to establish centers in Berkeley and Alameda this month in order to swell the county membership as rapidly as possible.

To secure the services of a government expert under the terms of appropriation by the federal and state departments, the county must have a Bureau with a membership of five hundred. It is desired to reach this number by July 1, in order that Alameda county may stand among the preferred list of counties and receive the appointment of an advisor at an early date. A membership campaign is to be started at once by the Oakland Center with the expectation of adding from 100 to 150 members to the Bureau during the month of June.

The aid of the commercial organizations will be requested in this campaign. Manager Joseph E. Cahane of the Oakland Commercial Club will take up the matter. W. F. Gibson will assist in the Alameda Exchange and the Chamber of Commerce of both of which is a director, and President Robinson will present the cause to the Oakland Real Estate Association. It is hoped to include in the membership all those who are interested in country lands.

In preparation to the acreage, Alameda county holds the highest record for the value of agricultural products of any county in the United States. Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, stands first with $13,052,588 for 692,240 acres; an average of $21.60 an acre. Alameda county has 458,450 acres producing products valued at $1,276,942; an average of $2.76 an acre. Los Angeles county with an acreage of 14,720,284 produces a value of $42,002,840; an average of $2.85 an acre. These figures are taken from the report of the 1930 census, and that year was an unproductive one for Alameda.

There are 241 farms in Alameda county, agriculture outranking any other single line of commercial enterprise.

Wife Declines to Prosecute Affinity And Is Commended

CHICAGO, June 5.—"That is a beautiful forgiving spirit. It is the spirit all women of America should have," said Municipal Judge Sullivan today to Mrs. Adeline Lytle. Mrs. Lytle had just declined to prosecute a woman she had trapped in her home with her husband here and had offered to pay the woman's fare back to her home in Oregon.

"I believe there is some good in this woman, Judge, and I don't want to prosecute her," said Mrs. Lytle. "I will send her home at my own expense. I still love my husband."

"You are greatly to be commended for your forgiving spirit," Mrs. Lytle said the judge. "The divorce problem would be solved easily if all women were like you."

Will Ownership of Big Borax Holdings Change?

The arrival of Attorney J. F. Peck in San Francisco yesterday after an absence of several months in London has again started among unanxious men the rumor that F. M. Smith is not meeting with success in his efforts to dispose of the Smith interests in Oakland.

When the tangled affairs of Smith were taken in hand by the group of financiers who had looked to the task, they found them out. Smith was entrusted with the disposal of his borax holdings, and went to New York for that purpose. No market was found there for the immense properties and several months ago Smith and Peck sailed for London, seeking to interest foreign capital.

It is stated that no definite announcement of the result of Peck's journey to London will be made until the return of Frank Anderson, of the Bank of California from Europe.

The affair was in honor of the members of the club and stockholders of the club-house association. A feature was the auction of several cakes and other objects, this defraying the cost of the Linden street and Helen Hendricks, to be purchased for the new club house.

Breuner's Take Over the Entire Stock Deal Makes It Possible for Bargain Sale

UNLOADING PART OF $54,000 HOME FURNITURE STOCK AT BREUNER WAREHOUSE.

As a result of lack of business and ill-advised location the Home Furniture Company, one of Sacramento's leading furniture stores, sold its entire $54,000 stock intact to the John Breuner Company at about one-third less than they actually paid for it. That is, one-third less than the actual wholesale cost.

This entire complete stock of quality furniture, carpets, etc., is now being transferred to the John Breuner Company's Oakland store and warehouse, to be distributed to the buying public of Oakland and vicinity at such ridiculously low prices, such wonderfully easy terms, that their quick disposal should prove to be the most sensational sale ever held in Oakland.

The stock consists of complete lines of the best furniture, a very wide assortment of rugs, carpets and bedding, draperies, stoves, etc., in fact everything that can be found in the best stores.

John Breuner Company's management realized, after considering the high standing of this store and the low price asked for their stock, that it was really a snap buy and took advantage of it, paying spot cash, and this $54,000 stock goes on sale today, and selling will continue for the next thirty days. On another page of this issue an idea of the startling reductions and enormous savings that will prevail can be found. The John Breuner Company want to impress upon its own customers as well as the public in general the wonderful opportunity of taking advantage of the low prices and announce that they will extend one year to eighteen months' credit regardless of the low sale prices.

CLUB REGALES CURATORS

Division Directors of Ebell Attend Luncheon

BY BETTY MARTIN.

One of the pleasant features of club life as applied to the modern woman, are the opportunities presented for the cultivation of old friendships and the making of new. It is no longer a case of being relegated, knitting-needle in hand, to a corner by the fireplace, to be forgotten save by the commiserating few—a woman—any woman who cares to—may continue to have broad interests until life's span is ended.

These friendships cannot be entered into by the woman who concentrates her entire attention upon matters of her own immediate household. The circle of her interests must extend beyond herself along other lines, and in so doing will be brought into immediate contact with other people.

There is nothing equal to a community of interests for sealing friendships, and to this end modern club life affords women scope never before possessed.

CURATORS' LUNCHEON.

The curators of Ebell were guests of the club at the Annual Luncheon yesterday.

Mrs. Magnus A. Andersen, general curator for the ensuing year, made her first appearance as toastmaster on this occasion, calling upon each curator present for a few remarks in which work already accomplished was told of and plans for the future briefly outlined.

In her opening remarks Mrs. Andersen, who, by the way, is a sister of the famous Californian Franklin K. Lane, complimented the curators upon their splendid records, and emphasized the importance of section work in the club.

Mrs. E. W. Owen, who sat at the right hand of the toast mistress, gave an interesting talk pertinent to Ebell initiators and a general discussion followed.

The invitations named the hour of 12:30 for the commencement of the luncheon, and the hands of the clock pointed to 4 p. m. when adjournment was announced. The long table, about which the guests gathered extended almost the entire length of the room, and was effectively decorated with beautiful ferns and golden-hued cornucopias.

Those present were the president, Mrs. E. W. Owen, the General Curator, Mrs. M. A. Andersen, Mrs. J. C. Lynch, Mrs. R. H. Kessler, Mrs. Frank Leavitt, Mrs. Charles Tucker, Mrs. J. A. Vandegriff, Mrs. W. E. Montgomery, Mrs. R. W. Kibbey, Mrs. Harry Bonner, Mrs. J. E. Baker, Mrs. Charles Woodbury, Mrs. L. C. Bell, Mrs. A. E. S. Baines, Mrs. S. C. Bolland, Mrs. A. A. Dunham, Mrs. D. ## USES PRESENCE OF MIND DURING 25-FOOT FALL

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—While working with a pick on top of a 25-foot brick wall in the yards of the United Railroads, at Valencia and Market streets, this morning, Charles Sula of 133 Harrison street, lost his balance and fell. But for the man's presence of mind he would probably have been instantly killed, as he plunged head downward. He stretched out both hands, however, and although saving his skull from serious injury, suffered a fracture of both arms. He received also a lacerated nose and possible internal injuries. He was taken to the Central Emergency Hospital.

REACH 25 YEARS IN BUSINESS MARK

Pioneer Furniture House Plans Greatest Sale in History.

Just twenty-five years ago the Metropolitan Furniture Company, the oldest furniture house now doing business in Oakland, put its first sign above its doors at a location which was then considered "way out" on San Pablo avenue, near seventeenth street.

Instantaneous success marked the enterprise, and it was but a short time until they moved to the corner of Thirtieth and Washington streets. Later they moved to Twelfth street between Clay and Washington, at which place they made their home for ten long years. Then business steadily increased until they were no longer able to take care of their wonderfully growing trade in that store and looked around for quarters to make their home.

At their present location, Fourteenth street, between Clay and Jefferson, an elegant five-story building was erected for this prosperous fast-growing house, and every inch of available space in this commodious building is crowded and jammed with productions from over the entire United States.

Mr. A. B. Noffsinger, president of the Metropolitan Furniture Co., in an interview with a representative of this paper this morning said, "Yes, it is time that we are inaugurating a most far-reaching sale. In fact, the biggest and most far-reaching store has ever known."

We control exclusively, which enable us to buy at lowest prices. In order to obtain the greatest value for your money we are determined to compare our prices with the lowest in the city.

RAIN LOADED WITH SALT PELTS OGDEN

OGDEN, Utah, June 4.—With the rain so heavily loaded with salt as a result of a heavy wind across Great Salt Lake, a storm broke over Ogden about 11:30 o'clock last night, and the atmosphere changed to a briny smell, while pedestrians were pelted with salt.

POSTAL RECEIPTS RECORD INCREASE

Another Indication of Sound Condition of City Is Thus Provided.

Postal receipts, no less than clearing house reports, are a true index of the pulse of the body politic and with its fluctuations of health they rise and fall. There have been many evidences at hand of the steady increase in the economic life of Oakland, but the one that follows most closely the daily variations is that which checks the amounts expended in correspondence and postal exchange.

Figures compiled by Postmaster Paul J. Schuler show that the revenues of the local office for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1914, surpassed by $25,389.24 the total for the preceding twelve months. During the month of April this year $897.49 more was received than during April, 1913.

The gross receipts of the office for the last two years have been as follows:

|                               |                |
|-------------------------------|----------------|
| Quarter ending June 30, 1913  | $1,157,725.80 |
| Quarter ending Sept. 30, 1913 | 1,075,524.64   |
| Quarter ending Dec. 31, 1913  | 1,131,324.83   |
| Quarter ending Mar. 31, 1914  | 1,132,828.67   |
| Total                         | $4,500,554.94 |
| Quarter ending June 30, 1914  | $1,225,228.80 |
| Quarter ending Sept. 30, 1914 | 1,085,524.64   |
| Quarter ending Dec. 31, 1914  | 1,140,428.67   |
| Quarter ending Mar. 31, 1915  | 1,132,828.67   |
| Total                         | $4,584,010.78 |

This shows an increase of $25,389.24 for the fiscal year just closed over the preceding year. During the last two months the growth of business has been even more marked and from present indications the increase for the coming year will be double.

In a comparison with $25,389.24 for April, 1913, a gain of $670.49. For the month of May this year the gross income was $10,428.67, and for May, 1913, $9,758.18; an increase of $670.49.

WIRELESS SPARK CAUSE OF DEATH OF AIRMEN

Measure Introduced to Readjust Rates of Mileage for R. R. Companies.

PORTSMOUTH, Eng., June 5.—Commander Rice and Lieutenant Thomas S. Creswell were drowned yesterday when a seaplane in which they were making a flight over Southampton water was driven into the sea. The seaplane was engaged with several other craft in maneuvers.

A torpedo boat rushed to the spot and recovered Creswell's body, which was found in the water, but the body of Commander Rice was not found.

The seaplane was one of the largest in the naval service and was of the latest model. It had a wing span of sixty-three feet, carried a 250-horsepower engine and was equipped with wireless. The condition of the machine indicated that the accident was due to an explosion attributed to the ignition from the wireless apparatus.

BILL TO AMEND POSTOFFICE LAWS

Measure Introduced to Readjust Rates of Mileage for R. R. Companies.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—The House postoffice committee had before it today a bill introduced by Representative Moon of Tennessee, chairman of the committee, to amend the postal and civil service laws. The measure proposes a readjustment of the rates of pay per mile for railroad companies for the various classes of standard postal cars, repeals the maximum limitation of $100 on postal savings deposits, but limits the interest to deposits of $1000 or less; requires assistant postmasters at all first and second-class postoffices to take competitive civil service examinations, and authorizes procedure with a view to keeping the charges for railroads in line with the postal service and to express companies equal in rate.

Under the readjustment of postal car mileage to pay to railroads the government would pay 20 cents a mile for sixty-foot full railway postoffice cars, 10 cents a mile for thirty-foot apartment postal cars, 5 cents a mile for fifteen-foot apartment postal cars, and 15 cents a mile for six-foot mail storage cars.

THINK THIS OVER, "MR. ANONYMOUS"

Oakland, June 3, 1914.
EDITOR THE TRIBUNE—"You can fool all the people some of the time, and you can fool some of the people all of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time" is a saying of Lincoln's, the truth of which has been demonstrated at the last two elections, and if you persist in helping the "ring" put over on the taxpayers every scheme their feeble brains conjure up, you must expect to be classed with them. It will pay you to stand by your subscribers part of the time.

ANTI-WATER DISTRICT.
Newspapers as a rule do not pay attention to anonymous communications. It being the custom to ignore persons who are afraid to sign their names when expressing opinions, but in this instance an exception is made to permit of comment on the foregoing which came to this office on a postal card.

Respecting the formation of a metropolitan water district, THE TRIBUNE has contented itself by printing explanatory articles, the object being to inform the electors as to the proposition submitted. THE TRIBUNE was content to leave the decision to the people after having defined the issue and for its position has no apologies to offer. The electorate decided against the water district plan by a decisive vote.

But that incident is closed and now for a discussion of the auditorium.

THE TRIBUNE believes with hundreds of citizens representing the best elements of Oakland that this building should be completed. It is frank in admitting that had it had charge of the construction it would have proceeded on different lines. It is equally candid in declaring that mistakes have been made, but a second mistake never corrected a first any more than the commission of a second wrong made the first one a right. THIS AUDITORIUM IS A NECESSITY AND ITS COMPLETION IS AS ESSENTIAL TO THE FUTURE GREATNESS OF THIS CITY AS ANY PROJECT AFFECTING ITS COMMERCIAL WELFARE AND GENERAL UPLIFT, IN PROGRESS OR SUGGESTED. What private enterprise having invested a given sum in a business proposition and having discovered an error had been made in estimate would abandon the task out of pique or for other trivial reasons when a like amount would correct conditions and result in a paying investment?

Refusal by a minority to vote additional money for this building has affected this city—the third largest in California—in a manner to be regretted. OAKLAND HAS RECEIVED ADVERTISING WHICH WILL NOT BENEFIT, BUT INJURE. ITS WISDOM HAS BEEN QUESTIONED, ITS SAGACITY ASSAILED, ITS CIVIC PRIDE DERIDED, ITS COMMERCIAL IMPORTANCE QUESTIONED AND A REPETITION WILL WORK IRREPARABLE INJURY.

THE TRIBUNE has no apologies to offer for its advocacy of these needed bonds. This paper is "standing by its subscribers" when it urges the adoption of this proposition. THE TRIBUNE stands for the material advancement and general uplift of Oakland and the east bay region generally. THE TRIBUNE cannot afford to do otherwise. It is the largest evening newspaper, in point of news published, column for column, west of Chicago. It prints facts as it finds them in plain, unbiased manner. Its comments on events and conditions are inspired by a desire to advocate that which is best for all and are written with the sole idea of furnishing enlightenment to its readers. It is an exponent of progress and that which is right, and is not to be moved from its straight to the line policy by suggestions or innuendoes written by anonymous censors. When the day comes in which THE TRIBUNE cannot pursue a policy it believes will result in the greatest good for the greatest number of the people in the city it serves and in which it has the greatest confidence, then THE TRIBUNE will go out of business. But that time will never come.

Good for You, Mr. District Attorney!

District Attorney Hynes has made a complete explanation of his action in preventing the extradition of "Sir" Harry Westwood Cooper, for a time under arrest in Durban, South Africa, and for whom it was proposed to send a police officer on a junket which meant a practical gridding of the globe.

Mr. Hynes includes in his review of the circumstances the following statement:

I believe it is my duty as District Attorney of this county to save the taxpayers every dollar that I can, and I am firmly of the opinion still that California and Alameda County are better off to be rid of Cooper and in possession of $2000 than to have him here, where after a short time he will be released again to victimize some unsuspecting girl or some devoted parent.

The District Attorney deserves commendation for his action. He is supported by public sentiment from one end of the county to the other. The idea of spending this sum to return Cooper from distant Africa has been opposed generally since it was first suggested. His conviction on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses and an attempt to cash a bogus draft for $500 pounds on a local bank—these being the allegations—would have been followed by a limited sentence and it would have been but a brief period ere he would again have been at liberty.

On the other hand the members of the council who voted for this appropriation; the Chief of Police, who planned this round-the-world pleasure trip for a police officer, are to be severely censured for their action. They were not justified in voting this money, and if, as has been stated, a refund on the tickets purchased cannot be obtained, it is the duty of the Tax Association to replace it from their own resources.

NO TIME FOR PLEASURE

BY THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE CARTOONISTS

Demand Almost Equals Food Supply.

Time was, not so very long ago either, when "The United States Feeds the World" was a common expression. But it appears that conditions have changed. According to figures published by the Department of Commerce the home demand for domestic foodstuffs almost equals production and is not only reducing exports, but increasing imports. Figures are published showing that imports of foodstuffs in their natural condition, including food animals, increased from $117,194,237 in the half year ending with March 1913 to $143,421,536 during the corresponding period in 1914, and that imports of foodstuffs partly or wholly prepared for use in the same period increased from $95,744,240 to $100,967,378. The increase on all is estimated at $30,000,000, or an average of $5,000,000 a month.

Figures of exports are even more striking. Of crude foodstuffs exports fell off more than fifty per cent, while prepared foodstuffs also declined. Food articles showing largest increases in importations were beef, cattle, corn, wheat, rice, macaroni, fruits, molasses and edible oils.

However, it is not expected these figures will be viewed with alarm. On the contrary they are educational to a degree. They indicate that more intensive methods of farming must be used, the areas of unoccupied land must be opened and reclaimed, that the necessity for more attention to the tilling of the soil is a necessity. The resources of America are by no means exhausted. There are millions of acres that can be brought into cultivation and made to produce enormously. The farms of the nation are by no means worn out, but are capable of yielding immense quantities.

But more attention must be given this subject and to this end it is suggested that more agricultural schools and colleges will be of greater benefit to the country at large than building battleships and that the training of young men to become producers instead of consumers will result in more lasting prosperity to the nation.

Pushing a 180-pound ball ahead of him a San Franciscan has started for New York, his purpose being to advertise the Panama Pacific Exposition. If he completes the trip in six months he will receive $1000. Most of us would rather work.

It is noted that the Colorado strike situation is not interfering with John D. Rockefeller Jr. keeping up his attendance at church.

Militant suffragettes having beaten up two editors in Belfast, we feel that now is the time to call a halt.

San Francisco's supervisors propose stopping the use of profanity over telephone lines. Hereafter when a fellow wants to relieve his feelings he must first hang up the receiver.

Hon. Arthur Reginald French, scion of English nobility, now serving a term in the Alameda county jail for robbing a post-office, is writing a book entitled "My Life in Prison." At last Donald Lowrie has a literary rival!

Rockport, Missouri, boasts of a hog with a human face. Huh, that's nothing, we have seen a street car half full of such animals lots of times.

The burglar who broke into the home of a New Yorker and collided with a hive of bees in the cellar, upsetting it, was certainly stung properly.

Reports from the east are to the effect that the Actors' Association of 1600 members, including the best talent of the country, proposes going on strike if certain demands made on managers are not acquiesced in. S'Death! Gadzooks! What Ho! and also 'Sblood! this sounds serious.

Alaska has a strike on her hands—gold strike in a new district.

If the colonel ever looks backward and discovers that any chist said to be following him through Spain, we shudder for the fellow's fate.

Twenty Years Ago Today

The marriage of Samuel E. Russell, who is connected with the well-known legal firm of Lowey & Gutsch took place from the Church of St. Patrick. The bride was Miss Agnes McCarthy.

One of the pretty afternoons of the week was given by Miss Gertrude Allen at the Cushman home on Franklin street. It was given in honor of Mrs. Herbert Austin, nee Costigan. Among those who helped to make the little tea pass off pleasantly were Miss Mamie Griffin and Louise Bennett.

Cards are out for the wedding of Frank Morton Todd and Miss Gussie Woodall, both of Berkeley. Frank Todd is the only son of Mrs. Minerva Todd-Sweeney, and has just graduated from the University.

Quite the funniest thing in Athenian annals was the minstrel show of the Renaissance boys. Were there ever such end men on the stage as Cleve Dam and Will Foote, comical beyond description? Cleve's white jersey will live in our memory. In addition to being so funny that we all roared every time we looked at him he gave one of the gems of the evening in that rare voice of his, for there was the traditional topical song "Not Always." Jim Ames did not seem to mind it that he grinned when he heard about his bald head and Phil Remillard only blushed over the sketch of himself as the duke.

About 100 employees of the Oakland Cable Company assembled at the power house on San Pablo avenue and testified to the esteem in which they held the retiring officers, by presenting G. Y. Loring with a valuable gold chain and locket, and G. A. Loring a handsome gold watch and chain. The presentation was made in behalf of the employees by George A. Egleston.

Last Wednesday the nuptials of Philip Reader Jr., the driver of Truck No. 1 and Miss Clara Alice Norton took place at the residence of the bride's brother, W. H. Norton.

In a veritable bower of the rarest trophies of the garden the wedding of Perham W. Nahl of Alameda and Miss Nannie Wood of Berkeley, was celebrated at the residence of the bride's parents. Among the guests present were Captain D. W. Wellman and wife, Colonel C. W. Rogers and wife, Rev. W. C. Learned and wife, Dr. F. Carpenter and wife, Charles Hovey and wife of Alameda, G. W. Haight of Berkeley and Miss Hanna of Oakland.

FAME'S PATHWAY

The Duchess of Marlborough, who wore a string of pearls at her throat, with a dress of pleated indigo taffeta and chiffon, was at home last week at Sunderland house in London, when she received many hundreds of women interested in the woman's municipal party, a non-political organization. Others present included the Countess of Granard and the Hon. and Mrs. John Ward.

Lady Sybil Grant, Lord Roseberry's elder daughter, has entered actively the literary field, her latest publication being a very amusing volume of verse. Nine of her short stories, all cleverly written, have been printed in a book entitled "The Chequer Board," the first one being "Beyond the Boundary," a weird tale of India and the supernatural. Lady Sybil has inherited more of her father's literary taste and ability than any one else in his family.

Struck by the beauty of a bit of Pittsburgh landscape painted by George Sotter of that city, Andrew Carnegie, it was learned the other day, made a single purchase out of the 342 paintings in the present international exhibition. "The Hill Road," hanging just inside the first large gallery in the institute, will be added to the Carnegie collection. The picture will be sent to New York immediately after the close of the exhibition.

EFFECT OF X-RAYS

Both plant and animal tissues are injured by prolonged exposure to X-rays, rays the plants were so stimulated that in three weeks their height reached twice that of unexposed plants. The effects on the human body were subject to similar regulation. The vitality of the tissues is diminished in the case of wounds, but a suitable application of X-rays, instead of causing skin burns, gave such stimulation that obstinate wounds healed up after a few repetitions of the treatment. For beneficial action proved to be about 150 seconds, and by such exposure to the rays the plants were so stimulated that in three weeks their height reached twice that of unexposed plants. ## SAYS PUBLICITY IS SCHOOL AID

Newspaper of Today Has Great Influence, Superintendent Tells Teachers.

SACRAMENTO, June 5.—State Superintendent Hyatt has advised school teachers to keep the local newspapers in touch with school doings if they wish to be successful.

"Almost as well run a good school if nobody ever finds out that it is good," says Hyatt. "In these days the newspaper is everywhere, reaching out over further and more universally than the influence of the schoolhouse. The function of the newspaper is to make things known of men."

"The public school is peculiarly the creation of public opinion, dependent for its sustenance, its support, and its success upon the public. The children and teachers do more work and better work if they see that it is recognized and approved, noticed, admired, by the outside world—that is, the public that reads the papers."

"The local newspapers should be informed of the progress of the school and should have tips and suggestions all the time. Let them tell the local newspaper your own story, your spelling match, your athletic contest, your prize essay, your increased enrollment, in a lively and spirited way. Or write it down and send it to them."

"No newspaper can use a long winded account, encumbered by literary style, but a newspaper will welcome a short paragraph telling a fact in a snappy way. Tell you good to study and try to acquire the newspaper style of telling things, for this is the language in which facts are conveyed to our world in these days."

Spencer, a former student at Miss Barker's school of this city, was married today at the local newspaper's office. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Charles Gardner, chaplain of Stanford University.

San Jose, June 5.—A great throng of people will witness the Seniors of the High School in their outdoor play, "The Arrow Maker," by 300. Auditors which is to be presented in Grace's Park tonight.

San Jose, June 5.—A. E. Whitaker, a retired capitalist, died yesterday from injuries received when he was riding back into a moving train.

Palo Alto, June 5.—Two workmen engaged in excavating at Palo Alto's water supply plant, narrowly avoided serious injury here yesterday when the side of a trench in which they were working gave way, covering them almost completely with an avalanche of dirt.

OAKLAND BOYS & GIRLS

LOVERS OF NATURE MUSICAL STUDENTS

MARGARET AND HELEN WHITNEY, WHO ARE VIOLINISTS.
—McCullagh Photo.

Whitney, of 1414 14th St. Under the guidance of their mother, the children are receiving instruction in the study of nature. The girls are preparing to enter the Grammar schools. They have many friends. Both Helen and Margaret are musically inclined and are studying the violin.

Through they only recently commenced their instrumental studies they have already made considerable progress. The outdoor pastimes are now absorbing the attention of the girls in the Sequoia and Poplar street playgrounds, where the little folks are engaging in all the games prescribed in the playground calendar of sports.

CHAMPIONS CAUSE OF CAR CONDUCTOR

Charge Made by School Teachers Repudiated; Appreciative of Courtesies.

EDITOR TRIBUNE—Will you kindly publish the enclosed in defense of the car conductors because of the charges made by the teachers?

JESSICA THOMPSON.

There are teachers and teachers—and there are car conductors and car conductors. The great majority of school teachers are grateful because they recognize the courtesies of the great majority of car conductors, and therefore regret the publication of the specific charges against the men who serve as conductors. The position of the car conductor—whether on a P. & E. car or on any other—is by no means enviable. In either case the patience of the conductors is taxed to the utmost by the pushing, jostling crowds, yet he must conceal his impatience just as the teacher tries to keep his temper when he is surrounded by the naughty pranks or by the stupidity of some pupils must conceal his anger. Will the complaints against the conductors be published in the name of the Oakland teachers, only a few were represented. Many teachers recognize the conductors and inform both as courteous men, attentive to the wants of the passengers. Indeed so attentive that many remember their daily passengers, slow down at the corner where their passengers are accustomed to board the car and by so doing save the teacher who might otherwise arrive at her school a minute late for her class on her corner, at her stop before the arrival of the car. The writer happens to know teachers who would go blocks beyond their duty if it were not for the thoughtful, kind, car conductor who stops his car and reminds the lady that her street is ahead.

MEMORIAL COMMITTEE THANKS ALL WHO AIDED

Comrades Rev. E. B. Dille and Rev. J. B. Orr for the address of the day; and chaplain, Mrs. M. Mears for acting as chaplain. Mrs. M. Mears, Mrs. Gertrude Daul and Miss Maude Purdy for vocal selections; to the bugler and firing squad, Professor John Smith and the Oakland School Boys' Exposition band, and Principal Freeman with the Lockwood Band, the ladies who prepared the dinner served in Lincoln hall immediately following the services at the cemeteries, and the press for giving notices of arrangements through their columns. ## ARDENT JAPANESE WOODER TO DEPART

Rev. Kumaji Mori Will Sail for Orient Tomorrow on S. S. Shinyo Maru.

Rev. Kumaji Mori, whose ardent love making drove Miss Alice Lorraine Andrews, former president of the Associated Women Students of the University of California to Juneau, Alaska, two years ago, and whose amorous epistles written to her since involved him with the authorities, will sail for Japan tomorrow on the Shinyo Maru, bound to Nagasaki. His friends promised Superior Judge Harris that he would leave the country rather than be prosecuted for using the mails contrary to the laws. H. Matsushige, secretary of Japanese Association of Oakland, and Detective Albert Woods of the Berkeley police department obtained an order from Judge Harris this morning permitting the minister to return to his former lodgings at the Unitarian Japanese Mission, Sixth and Harrison streets, to pack his personal effects preparatory to departure. Since his hearing in court several days ago, Rev. Mori has been confined in the Emergency hospital. All he taken back to the hospital tonight and escorted to the steamer by Detective Woods and his friends tomorrow.

It was overcome by an uncontrollable desire to marry Miss Andrews, said Rev. Mori. "I realize now that I did wrong and I think that when the Pacific ocean separates us I can live and forget." Rev. Mori will go to Nagasaki, where he will live with his brother, who is a merchant. He believes that his knowledge of English and of foreign customs will enable him to be of great assistance in the business. For the last six years Rev. Mori has sought to force his attentions upon Miss Andrews. While the young woman resided in Berkeley he wrote her tender epistles. Finally she went to Juneau to her mother to escape the attempted attentions of the Japanese. She has been engaged as a school teacher in Juneau, and her friends say that she expects to return to Berkeley as soon as her Oriental admirer has departed.

SEEKING HEIRS OF LATE MRS. LAURA BROWN-KENT

BERKELEY, June 5.—Effort is being made by Solange Adams, to find the heirs of Jonathan Brown, veteran of the Civil War and member of a New York regiment, who died several years ago in France, leaving an estate of considerable size. Efforts to locate the heirs are being made through following the history of Mrs. Laura Brown, widow of the deceased veteran. Mrs. Brown came west following her husband's death, marrying in this state, a man named Kent. She died here in November, leaving one or two children. It is for these children and for Kent that the Kansas men are seeking. They have addressed Chief Vollmer in an effort to collect the assistance.

Homely, Yet Admired and Envied; Her Secret

The convention crowd made a path for her, cast admiring side glances, then with longings eyes followed her to the elevator. It was at the Ponchartraine in Detroit. The incident was recalled when I chanced to sit across table from the woman. What was it about her that caused all that commotion? Her complexion, radiant, her eyes, as if they were looking at you, her hair, as if it were a work of art, her figure, as if it were a masterpiece of nature. "Wrinkles never bother me. As they made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saffron in a half pint of witch hazel. It works like magic!"—Mona Morrow. Tattler.

Citizens Declare Need of Action on Site by the City Council.

ALAMEDA, June 5.—The board of health has given a new angle to the pound situation in this city, the members being up in arms over the city council's wearing act on the pound for two weeks. A special meeting of the board was called yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock and a letter was prepared demanding that the city council re-establish the pound at once.

It is claimed by the health directors that at the present time rabies may be existing in this city and they do not want any chance taken in allowing rabid dogs to travel about the streets uncontrolled.

The council will hold a special meeting of the committee of the whole tomorrow evening, to discuss the street improvement question and it is likely that steps will be taken to call a emergency meeting to consider the demand of the board of health.

NICHOLL PUTS UP $25,000 FOR HALL

Capitalist Makes First Move in Plan for Initiative City Hall Vote.

RICHMOND, June 5.—By placing the sum of $25,000 in escrow in the Central National Bank of Oakland to be used to construct a new city hall for Richmond, John H. Nicholl, the Oakland capitalist, with large local holdings, has taken the second step in the matter of bringing before the people the acceptance of his offer for a new city hall building at N. Y. and Twenty-sixth streets.

City hall matter are now being circulated and many signatures are being secured by the paid circulators sent out by the capitalist, who has offered two half blocks of land and $25,000 in cash for the securing of the municipal headquarters. Under the stipulation filed by Nicholl with the city, $25,000 is placed in what is known as the "Richmond City Hall fund" and will remain there until January 1 next. Checks against this account up to that time must bear the joint signatures of Nicholl and the mayor of Richmond.

BOY AND AUTO ROLL TOGETHER; ONE HURT

RICHMOND, June 5.—Roy Barnes, 10 years old, living at Ohio and Fifteenth streets, was painfully injured and had a close call from being killed, outright last evening about 6 o'clock, when he coasted on roller skates from the sidewalk at Bissell avenue and Seventh street against an automobile driven by Foster Conn. To the fact that Conn was not traveling rapidly no doubt the boy owes his life. He rolled under the rear right wheel of the big touring car and it passed over his body, dragging him several feet. Conn stopped immediately and picked Roy up, carried him to his home, where it was found that his injuries, while painful, were not serious.

SCALY PIMPLES ON HANDS AND ARMS

Little White Bumps Came in Clusters. Would Swell Up, Burn, Itch and Ache. Couldn't Sleep For Torture. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Cured.

6 East Sixth St., Coffeyville, Kan.—"About two years ago my pet kitten caught some kind of disease. I tried to doctor the little thing and I caught the disease on my hands and arms. It first broke out in little watery pimples and when the water dried out they all ran together and got scaly. There were lots of these white bumps about as big as the end of a pin and they would come in clusters. When I would scratch them yellow water would appear. Then my hands and arms would swell up and burn and itch and ache till it seemed like I would go crazy. Heat would make it worse. When the weather was hot I couldn't sleep nights for the torture. I felt so ashamed of my hands they looked so terrible. I couldn't bear any clothing to touch my arms at all. "I used every ointment and lotion I could hear of for relief but nothing seemed beneficial. So after over a year of suffering and torture I heard of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I got some. I used three cakes of Cuticura Soap and three ounces of Cuticura Ointment and they cured my arms and hands." (Signed) Miss Laura Medberry, June 5, 1913.

Cuticura Soap 25c. and Cuticura Ointment 50c. are sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T. Boston." Men who share and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

RS. EDWARD GOGERTY of Berkeley may have set a fashion. It is hard to say. At any rate she gave the first "stork party" to be recorded in California, though they do this sort of gracious thing in Germany for young mothers.

The affair was a charming luncheon in honor of Mrs. Maine, wife of Dr. A. F. Maine, of Oakland, and fourteen young matrons were gathered to meet her, with dainty gifts for the small person the stork is bringing to the Maines in the fall. It was a very "modern" ideal-fashioned people would call it "advanced." But it was charming.

The dining-room was a picture. In the center of the table banked with baby roses and sweet peas was a cradle, all lace and ribbons. Around it were tiny lily candles, and garlands of baby roses were draped over it. The table was lit with candles and the soft light revealed a small person sitting in the dining-room window. From his bill long legs were extended to the basket at Mrs. Maine's place and on each of the streamers was added a gift. There were lace caps and tiny silk socks, baby pins and bits of lingerie, embroidered. All the fascinating lovely things a very small person requires.

There isn't a question that the luncheon was a delightful success. Mrs. Gogerty declares it was, and the guest of honor also. Doubtless the other guests share their enthusiasm, so there really seems no reason why "stork parties" shouldn't be a fashion and the delightful success repeated.

At Mrs. Gogerty's luncheon on Wednesday were Mrs. W. S. Garretsee, Mrs. James Garland, Mrs. D. P. Fuller, Mrs. I. Cerethon, Mrs. K. E. Eckert, Mrs. E. P. Junior, Mrs. A. E. Roe, Mrs. J. W. Butten, Mrs. V. S. Berger, Mrs. J. McKinley, Mrs. F. F. Still, Mrs. A. J. Donovan and Mrs. A. P. Hillis.

She is an accomplished musician and much of her time in Europe was given to the cultivation of her voice. Mrs. Gregory, who accompanied her daughter to Europe, is

The marriage of Miss Ella Verlan Daly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Only the immediate relatives of both families were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Harkinson, of 1405 Broadway, St. John's, and an interesting feature was that the prayer-book used by Father Spencer was the same from which the bride and groom were reading. The bride's parents were read, Mr. and Mrs. Deuprey will make their home in San Francisco, where the former is one of the distinguished members of the bar.

IS BRIDE OF 'SKPPER

Miss Anna Louise Nagel Wed

STOCKTON, June 5.—Miss Anna Louise Nagel, the daughter of Robert F. Nagel, a prominent farmer of this county, became the bride last evening of Captain W. D. Hatch, a resident of Oakland and one of the principal owners of the Montebello Steamship Company.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. Berison under a canopy of flowers in the lawn of the Nagel county home. The maid of honor was Miss Amelia Nash, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids were Misses Margaret Nagel and Malene Hatch. Owing to a recent death in the Nagel family the guests were confined to relatives and a few intimate friends. Following a wedding supper the young couple departed for San Francisco, where they will sail for Honolulu for an extended honeymoon.

The bride is a young woman of rare accomplishments and is the center of a wide circle of friends. Captain Hatch, whose steamers ply between San Francisco and Vallejo, is the son of the late Captain Z. J. Hatch.

The romance began a year ago when Miss Nagel was a student at the State university. She met Captain Hatch while passenger on one of his boats.

CHICAGO, June 5.—Mark Morton, fired by the publicity given his frankish trip of his daughter, Helen, Virginia, was yesterday accused of attacking a newspaper reporter, biting his hands and then wrecking an automobile containing his prisoner against fencepost.

The reporter declared that he would sue for damages for damages and lodged a charge of assault against him. The attack is said to have been made by an attempt to gain an interview with Helen Morton charged the reporter yesterday.

After his trip to Virginia Miss Helen Morton was quoted as saying that Chicago men were "nit wits" and that she did not wish to be married, but to associate for a time with real men and enjoy herself in her favorite pastime—the training and riding of horses. She returned to Chicago this week "under an armistice," she said.

WIDOW LEAVES FUND FOR PARK MEMORIAL
 SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—In memory of Frank H. Burke, a lover of horses and one who devoted his life to the betterment of their breed and their conditions, a memorial, intimately associated with the horse, is to be founded in Golden Gate Park from a $75,000 fund left by the late Mary A. Burke of Santa Barbara.

The exact form which the memorial will take, except that it is to associate the name of Burke with the horse, is still undecided in the will, filed for probate in San Jose yesterday; but is left to the executors, Oliver B. Martin and Edwin Tucker of San Francisco.

The executors will consult with the park commissioners as to the memorial. Mrs. Burke was as well known as a horseman. Her husband was as a horseman. They kept a large stable at their beautiful country place near Santa Barbara, which included a private race track.

Mrs. Burke, who was one of the founders of the real estate firm of Madison & Burke, died in an automobile accident last year.

"I have driven horses for so many years that I cannot get used to driving a machine I cannot talk to," among other bequests made by Mrs. Burke she left some famous horses to C. Masoreo of San Francisco. Among these are Wanda, Sport, Lady Bell and others.

Edith Davis, her daughter, received $80,000, and other bequests are made to employees. The entire estate is valued at about $250,000.

BAY LEAGUE
MAY DISBAND

Richmond Drops Out and Napa
Leader.

VALLEJO, June 5.—The first break in the Bay Counties Industrial League took place yesterday when Richmond decided to drop out of the organization. "Since the season opened Richmond has been losing money and when the game between Richmond and Crockett drew out $15 the last Sunday it was decided to quit the league."

As a result of Richmond's action Napa is now left as the league leader, but it seems likely that the entire league will disband shortly. Napa has been losing money right along as the people of that place have failed to support the team.

At home the fans have failed to give Manager Blanco the proper support and as a result he has been losing money every Sunday. The league was organized primarily for the purpose of boosting the various cities represented and keeping people at home on Sunday, but its efforts have not been appreciated and when the organization finally disbands it will result in much loss to the different cities represented, as thousands of dollars will go to San Francisco and Oakland that would otherwise have been kept at home. A meeting of the league directors will be held Saturday night at which time the fate of the organization will be decided.

STEAMER SEHOME TO MAKE RUN ON BAY

VALLEJO, June 5.—The steamer Sehome is to be placed in commission the latter part of next week and will relieve the General Frisbie as weekly steamer. The Sehome will make the General Frisbie's run between here and San Francisco for the remainder of the summer months, thus being the plan under consideration by the Monticello steamship officials.

TO PITCH HAY.

VALLEJO, June 5.—Sammy Trunkle, former "pride of the cruiser Maryland," who was arrested yesterday and charged with vagrancy, had a hearing in the police court yesterday afternoon and was given a 60-day suspended sentence upon condition that he leave Vallejo and remain away for two months. He promised to go out to Len Higuera's ranch on the Benicia road to pitch hay.

TO REPRESENT PARLOR.

VALLEJO, June 5.—Mrs. Perry will represent the Ladies of the Parlor of the Daughters of the Coming Grand Parlor session which will be held in Oakland next week. The ladies daughters will represent the Bay Counties Industrial League the latter part of next week.

STOP SALMON PACKING.

VALLEJO, June 5.—Coming to the prevailing shortage of salmon in the waters of this vicinity the fish packing plant at South Vallejo has been forced to suspend operations and it is unlikely that it will start up again this year.

RED MEN'S ADOPTION.

VALLEJO, June 5.—It is expected that at least three hundred out-of-town Red Men will attend the adoption which will be held by Samoset Tribe, No. 22, Improved Order Red Men, at Samoset Hall next Saturday evening.

MARE ISLAND NOTES

MARE ISLAND, June 5.—The North American Company's dredger was moved to a point just north of the shear less yesterday and the channel deepener will be at work before the day is over removing the mud from alongside the quay wall to a thirty-foot depth at mean low water.

The old quarantine ship Omaha has been moved in the channel for the time being. The vessel is destined for the scrap heap.

The Public Works Department has completed all of the plans for the improvement of the south end of the quay wall and bids will be advertised for soon after July 1.

St. Louis by Commandant F. M. Bennett, U. S. N., of Mare Island, the head of the navy yard stated that the vessel would make a round trip to the local government station.

If possible the tanker Kanawha will be launched at Mare Island on Thursday, July 5. If the ship is not ready to be placed overboard on that date the hull department officers will have to wait until July 29 or 30 for a favorable tide.

The masts of the Kanawha are to be installed the latter part of this month. The navy collier Justin is still taking on coal at the California City coaling depot. According to present plans of the Navy Department the Justin will leave the lower bay for Mazatlan, Mexico, on or about June 8.

The sub-marine boat P-4 which has just been brought on-shore at the local naval station is to have her trip about the bay on June 20. The engines of the diver have just been placed in first-class shape by the station mechanics.

Paymaster's clerk, A. J. Marshall, U. S. N., has been detached from the cruiser St. Louis and will be given temporary duty at the navy yard storehouse.

All of the structural work which was damaged by the recent fire on the cantilever crane at Mare Island has been renewed and the crane will be ready for use again as soon as the new motors arrive from the east coast.

THREATENED DEATH TO MISSING MAN

George Sale. Recently Poisoned
by Pseudo Salesman, Sought by Police.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—A field investigation was begun this morning into the disappearance of George Sale, proprietor of the Dudley Inn 174 Sixth street, who has been under threats of death at the hands of a mysterious gang and who has not been seen since May 27. Sale was recently poisoned with grape juice shown him by a man posing as a salesman, who entered his place of business and asked him to sample the beverage. Prior to that time he was attacked on his way to the city prison to bail out a supposed friend. He had been lured to a lonely spot by a mysterious telephone message telling him that one of his acquaintances had gotten into trouble.

An anonymous communication warned him to break off his relations with Mrs. Agnes Lefevre, formerly of 721 Jones street, to whom he was engaged to be married. The couple were waiting with the marriage ceremony until such time as the police should be notified of the divorce.

The police were requested last night to search for Sale, who dropped from sight after leaving his place of business last week. According to J. A. Kratt, proprietor of the Hotel Strand where Sale lived, he had not been seen there since last Thursday.

JUAREZ BELLES
ARE FIGHT FANS

But Bull Fight Is the Sort They Attend, Outnumbering
the Men.

JUAREZ, Mexico, June 5.—If the good ladies of Juarez held ladies' aid society meetings or did the family dancing on Sunday afternoons, a choice lot of matadors, pleaders, banderillos and capadores might be otherwise engaged as bartenders, waiters or cobblers.

It is the feminine fans in Juarez who furnish the "velvet," otherwise known as the profits, at the weekly bull-fights. In no city in Mexico, according to the prominent bull-fight promoter, do women form quite so large a number of the Sunday afternoon crowds that watch the bloody sport as in this border town.

And it is only a short distance from the street car to El Paso, Texas, where the above mentioned ladies aid societies and dancing circles hold forth on Sunday afternoons.

A third of the crowd that saw five bulls tormented to death, a horse torn to pieces and a matador severely gored by a maddened bull on a recent Sunday in the Juarez bull ring, was made up of women. They came very early and stayed very late, because—according to the posters—it was all being done "in honor of the great General Francisco Villa."

MUCH LIKE BLEACHERS.

Others, it is divided into two sections, "seniors" and "juniors" or "blonde" and "brunette." On the seniors side, where the price of a seat was two pesos, sat the elite of Juarez, tourists from El Paso and military officers from the cuartel. There were so many of the military on the seniors side that you get the impression they were "dead-headers." On the sunny side were grouped the poets, the women of the lower classes, and about as many youngsters as were occupying the bleachers at the ball game over in El Paso.

Ranged along the first tiers of seats that swung in a semicircle closest to the scene of gore, were the señoritas of Juarez, pretty, dark-eyed, slender figures, whose steps earlier in the day had been devotedly directed to the little white mission behind the central plaza.

But having said their morning prayers, they were applauding with little gloved hands the torture of the horses and the spilling of blood in the arena.

Babies were there, too—at least a score of them, sleeping in the arms of tired-looking mothers. When the fight grew tame and the groggy bull dragged himself wearily about the ring, the mothers rocked the infants or fanned away the flies. But if the fight lagged too much, the mothers with the pretty señoritas joined in the cry: "Otro toro!" (Bring another bull.)

The second bull had honored the great General Villa by succumbing to the matador after forty minutes of vicious jabbing, when a young American girl, en route to her home in New York from a winter visit in California, furnished the crowd with unexpected amusement.

She rose from her seat, stepped into the ring and leaped it. His hoofs striking against the concrete base of the first row of seats.

FEARLESS SORT.

The little American tourist sprang to her feet in terror. Gathering her skirts, she leaped up first one tier and then another. In her excitement she dropped into the lap of a Mexican trooper from thearrison. His Mauser rifle went proceeding. They had not moved when the toro made his leap.

Entering camp on—part of the men departed as American baseball fans do in the seventh inning of a listless baseball game—but the women held their seats. They tapped their heels against the concrete when the band responded to the cry for "musica" and joined in the rite when a clever banderillo succeeded in thrusting a pair of gaily colored handkerchiefs into the bull's neck.

A cool breeze blew in over the hills south of Juarez. It signaled a gorgeous display from the tiorrita contingent, who began swarming shoulders in mantillas that outlined the rainbow of colors.

Higher up the sides of the amphitheater, the mothers were covering the babies with black mantilla or dark blue robes.

When the bespangled matador had made his final sword thrust and the feminine hands had beat the last applause of the evening, the secretary, walking in pairs, moved slowly off into the direction of the little white mission.

Two señoras who had worked themselves into fits of different fits of frenzy—one for each bull—gathered at the cantina of Jesus Rodriguez, not far from the bull ring, to drink to the health of the matador.

RECOVER THIEVES' LOOT OF JEWELRY

Prisoner Gives Information of Plunder Valued at $2000.

SEATTLE, June 5.—Acting on information given by a prisoner in jail in Portland, Sheriff Edward Cuddehe yesterday unearthed a thieves' cache in the backyard of a residence in North Seattle and recovered jewelry valued at $2000. The sheriff believes more stolen jewelry is buried in the yard and today a force of men began digging up the ground.

Whether the jewelry was stolen in Seattle or in some other city is not known.

The man who gave Sheriff Cuddehe the information was placed by the Portland police in a cell with Arthur Waters, taken to Portland from San Jose, Cal., on a burglary charge.

Waters is said to have told his cellmate the location of the cache in Seattle so he could come here and get the loot.

WILSON'S POLICY APPROVED.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 5.—United States Senator Lee S. Overman was unanimously re-nominated and the position taken by President Wilson for repeal of the Panama tolls exemption clause was endorsed by the Democratic state convention yesterday. The convention also pledged the party to support a state-wide primary law.

KILL COMPETITION? WHY! THE IDEA!!

United Shoe Machinery Co. Protests it Bought Out Firm for Patents.

BOSTON, June 5.—A suggestion that the purchase of the Thomas G. Plant patents and shoe machinery business by the United Shoe Machinery Company for $6,000,000 was a violation of the Sherman anti-trust act was made by Judge Putnam, in the Federal Court, before whom the United Company is on trial as an unlawful monopoly.

"If this does not spell desire to get rid of competition with Plant, I don't know what does," Judge Putnam said. "Here is Plant with the possibility of wide competition and he is bought out to stop competition. Isn't that a clear case under the Sherman act?"

Charles F. Choate, counsel for the company, denied that the purchase was made for the purpose of destroying competition. He said that negotiations had been going on for some time before the purchase was effected, and from that time he argued that if the defendant had desired merely to prevent competition it would have bought Plant out at the first opportunity. He contended that the purpose of the purchase was to obtain valuable patents owned by

REDFIELD LIVENS DEPRESSED WORLD

But in America, He Says, Men Are Prosperous and Timid.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 5.—Secretary of Commerce Redfield, in a speech before the Chamber of Commerce, discussed business conditions throughout the country. In part he said:

"If we would place the business atmosphere of the country on a sort of commercial weather map, such as is used by the weather service, we should find a curious condition. In the extreme southeast and southwest would be areas where the business barometer is high. All through the great center part of the country, where the bulk of our wheat is grown, would be another great area of fair weather and high pressure. Over the great cotton areas of the south would be no depression. High barometer also prevails where automobiles are made in and about the lake area. Over the northeastern states would be found a section of low barometer and marked depression."

EFFECT CORRELATIVE.

After citing reports of depression in various foreign countries Mr. Redfield continued:

"That which affects one nation adversely is reflected upon the others. It is the most childishness to select one of them from the others and deal with it as if its own internal procedure were the sole cause of the conditions found in it."

"In like manner, my argument to the effect that the alleged attitude of our government toward 'big business' is the cause of our depression as exists here is met by the fact that in Germany, where trusts and cartels are legalized and the government assists both, the depression is even more severe than it has been here."

"Any view, therefore, of the world's business finds it in a state of depression almost everywhere, with ocean freights so low because of the shortage of international traffic on the sea that shipowners are beginning to consider whether it is not cheaper to lay their vessels up than to run them at a material loss."

PSYCHOLOGY OF TRADE.

"It is true that a psychological depression is none the less a depression because it is psychological. We may, therefore, fairly look into other conditions to see whether the mental state that exists has a justification in solid fact."

"It is true, it is not, as one looks over the country, that all the conditions upon which sound business should rest exist in full force and vigor. Few will contend that merchants are overstocked. Rather is the reverse true. Money is not so scarce that banks refuse legitimate borrowers. The reverse is true."

"If you and I get away from the crowded centers of our Middle and Eastern states, where mental mourning exists for conditions that can never return, since the day of mastery is over and commerce must henceforth be a servant—if I say, we get away from these centers into which the light is breaking, but which it has not yet fully illuminated, we shall find a different atmosphere."

DRESS FOR BEACH, NOT FOR CABARET

Such Is the Impression of Gotham Reporter at Seaside.

NEW YORK, June 5.—To be truly fashionable when you take a dip in the briny this summer you must put on more clothes than you take off. Time was when the bathing beach was the tankard ground where all feminine line points were frankly revealed. Now all the revealing is done in the maris, the public restaurants and theaters, while the charms of the belle of the bathers are as completely hidden under the up-to-date bathing costume as the light under the proverbial bushel.

Skirts are longer than heretofore and the pantalolet is a mode is glimpsed generously below in ruffled and ruffled glory. Paniers of different colors are a favorite trimming and together with bustle effects in their buoyant buoyancy will no doubt cause a decided slump in the demand for "wings," bladders and cork belts by timorous swimmers.

Brilliant colors that are fast and certain look is a new feature and rubber flowers made into corsage bouquets are the last vogue in aquatic festiveness. Imagine what a snappy effect a spray of pink rubber roses will add to your bathing suit and the spring touch imparted by a bunch of purple rubber violets is sure to win at the stretch. Certainly nobody could classify these classic violets as belonging to the striking variety.

SOME OTHER WRINKLES.

One of the most popular models of a 1914 bathing suit is of blue or black taffeta with a deep girle of bright blue or black of Roman striped silk and a piped in the striped or plaid trimming.

The waist is open down the front to the waist line and filled in with a vest of sheer white muslin with an upstanding Goldstone collar of the same. Flaring cuffs of muslin finish the long sleeves and the ruffles edging the full pantalolet are piped in the girle silk.

A bright green satin costume has a tunic scooped on the edge, a low neck blouse with a scooped collar, a collar of the satin, and puffed elbow sleeves finished with a scooped ruffle as are the puffy bloomers. A deep under of the suit of four sections and no other color or trimming relieves this study in green save a white rubber girdle and a wreath of the waterproof cardinals on a smart green crush satin hat that completes the verdant setup.

A striking black taffeta suit has hawt panners and bustle of futuristic style and a V-shaped inset of the same placed point downward in the skirt. Another purple satin suit panned in poisonous purple and green striped silk has a bunch of violets at the belt.

SCHOOL FOR SWIMMERS.

A bright red satin shows a skirt entirely composed of four sections and flares. The pendant of fair batonny flares this scooped trimming is probably accentuated by the desire to prove that quite as many good swimmers go into the sea as come out and are as delectable with satin dressing as the deep sea sculler with a dressing of tartar sauce.

The newest sandals are in bright satin like the late fango slippers with divers straps. Nothing could be more appropriate than a deep sea green slipper with divers straps to cover an undertone, now the aquatic feat of covering bathing feet and the chic flower trimmed hats that top the hirsute waves that top the ocean waves are not the salient features of the newest bathing suits, however.

The really striking innovations after all are the superabundance of brilliant beads, panners and puffs. The minute you get one on you are bound to belong to the floating population.

$10,000,000 FLOOD DAMAGE IN SOUTH

Report Gives Estimate of Loss From Los Angeles Winter Storms.

LOS ANGELES, June 5.—Damage in Los Angeles county, resulting from the overflow of storm waters during the floods of last winter, approximated $10,000,000, according to a report filed with the board of supervisors by a specially appointed board of engineers of flood control.

Suggestions for future flood control at an estimated expense of $9,500,000, were made by the engineers. If precedents established by San Joaquin and Sacramento valley floods are followed, the state and national governments will share equally 40 per cent of the cost.

Of the loss, about $4,376,900 was estimated to be damage done to ranches. Data concerning the OFRINE damage was given as follows: Land overflooded, 11,767 acres; land totally ruined, 1904 acres; land partially ruined, 2081 acres.
